

JUN 20 1961

746

Cynic

The defeat of the Central Intelligence Agency in Cuba was most hilarious. May I hope that it will continue to interfere in numerous other countries in that this will insure the victory for the liberal groups?

We are again being told that we will defend Berlin. I am amazed that Eichmann has not already been selected by the U. S. to head a puppet government. After all, he was efficient and our crooked big businessmen admire efficiency above all else.

—FRANK THAELMANN